WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO

Tate's vision is to serve as artistically adventurous and culturally inclusive art museums for the UK and the world. We deliver this through activities in our four galleries across the UK (Tate Liverpool, Tate St Ives, Tate Britain and Tate Modern), our digital platforms and collaborations with our national and international partners. At the heart of Tate is our collection of art, which includes British art from the 16th century to the present day, and international modern art from 1900 to the present day.

Tate's Membership scheme was established in 1958 specifically to support the work of Tate and is overseen by Council who act in an advisory capacity to the Tate Board. Membership is growing with over 160,000 Tate Members and 150,000 Tate Collective Members and ambitious plans for future growth. Through a contribution of around £20 million annually, Tate Members fund acquisitions and support the programme and developments at Tate Modern, Tate Britain, Tate Liverpool and Tate St Ives. A diverse group, Members are frequent visitors and fervent advocates for Tate, and beyond their membership the source of other forms of income and support such as advocacy, booking for events and courses, spending in the shops and restaurants, donations, legacies.

Our ambition is to grow the membership, maximise the donation to Tate, increase the Members involvement, and make Tate Members the most attractive scheme of its kind anywhere. In addition we are exploring new ways for individuals to be involved and engaged in the work of Tate. We are looking for a dedicated and motivated individual to help develop this vision.
